SkyWest 2011 Mini Indy Champions Announced

Media Alert

St. George, UT, March 25, 2011 – SkyWest Airlines’ eleventh annual Mini Indy charity event has once again been deemed a success!

Businesses from around the world gathered in SkyWest’s hometown Friday to contend for Mini Indy fame. These participants battled it out “go-cart style” on the new “Black Hill Speedway,” located at the former St. George airport – where it all began for SkyWest.

Though the inclement weather forced an earlier-than-expected finish, SkyWest Airlines is pleased to announce the results of the 2011 Mini Indy competition:

2011 Mini Indy Grand Champions:
First Place – Wal-Mart Distribution
Second Place – Wencor
Third Place – Honeywell

Busch Division Winner: Bombardier Aerospace
Winston Division Winners: Wal-Mart Distribution

Fastest Pit Crew: Embraer
Best-Looking Car: Aero Parts Mart/AeroTurbine
Best Uniforms: Aero Parts Mart/AeroTurbine

Mini Indy, sponsored by SkyWest Airlines and the City of St. George, is the largest event benefiting United Way Dixie. Now in its eleventh year, the event has generated nearly a million dollars for charity. Visit www.miniindy.org for more information about Mini Indy 2011, including race results and statistics.
