Birthday Cake Baker Wanted

St. George, UT.- The City of St. George is accepting cake design proposals for the City's 150th birthday celebration. The cake will be revealed Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at the Birthday Bash Concert featuring American Idol finalist Brooke White in the Dixie State College Burns Arena and should be large enough for the audience to view from their seats. It could be a replica of a local landmark, building or another object that defines the area. The Heritage Days Committee will select the most original design. Proposals should be submitted to: Angie Mason at the Pioneer Center for the Arts 47 East 200 North St. George, UT 84770. For questions, please contact (435) 627-4510 x 112 heritagedays@sgcity.org.
